EXPERIENCE

Systems Administrator | US Army 2018-2022

- Developed a strong work ethic and commitment to organization.
- Handpicked to perform duties above assigned rank (sent to Cadet Summer Training where I ran the IT shop for a month by myself. I was individually responsible for creating user accounts for over 100 soldiers, issuing equipment, and keeping accountability for over $850,000 worth of equipment. I was working 3 pay grades above my current pay grade).
- Systems Administrator for the Battalion IT shop in which I was responsible for updating and maintaining computer systems as well as creating and maintaining user accounts for over 500 soldiers.
- Received consistently high evaluations.
- Assisted in planning, training, and operational activities to ensure a productive work environment.
- Received and transmitted communications using radio-telephone equipment in accordance with government regulations. May repair equipment.
- Supervises, installs, deploys, maintains, troubleshoots, and assists users with battlefield signal support systems and terminal devices. Integrates signal systems and networks. Performs unit level maintenance on authorized signal equipment and associated electronic devices. Trains and provides technical assistance to users of signal equipment. Operates and performs preventive maintenance checks and service (PMCS) on assigned vehicles and power generators.

- Repaired, installed, and maintained mobile or stationary radio transmitting, broadcasting, and receiving equipment, and two-way radio communications systems used in cellular telecommunications, mobile broadband, ship-to-shore, aircraft-to-ground communications, and radio equipment in service and emergency vehicles. May test and analyze network coverage.

AWARDS AND HONORS

Army Achievement Medal

Military honor meant to award junior officers and enlisted personnel in the Army who are not eligible to receive the higher Commendation or Meritorious Service medals.

Army Good Conduct Medal

Military honor presented to a Soldier who has displayed exemplary behavior, efficiency, and fidelity in active federal Military service.

National Defense Service Medal

The oldest "service medal" in the United States, this military honor recognizes those who served honorably during a designated time period of which a "national emergency" had been declared during a time of war or conflict.

Armed Forces Service Medal

Military honor presented to those service members who engage in "significant activity" such as peacekeeping operations, prolonged humanitarian actions, or military operations in support (or as a member of) NATO or United Nations forces.

Army Service Ribbon

Military honor awarded to members of the Army, Army Reserve, and Army National Guard for successful completion of initial-entry training, which for officers is considered to be successful completion of their basic/orientation or higher level course. Enlisted soldiers will be awarded the ribbon upon successful completion of their initial MOS (career) advanced training course.
